AGREEMENT 1 BETWEEN NORTHWIND AND SUMMIT SYSTEMS

A penalty of 2% of the order value applies for each day of late delivery.

The Supplier shall review quality procedures subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The service provider shall cooperate in good faith regarding change requests as set out in the relevant schedule.

The customer may audit the supplier’s records on 15 days notice.

Each party will maintain records concerning the integration of systems subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The service provider shall review the allocation of personnel subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The minimum order quantity is 50 units.

The Supplier acknowledges the importance of reporting formats in accordance with ordinary business practice.

The parties will maintain records concerning reporting formats and will report progress to the steering group.

Each party remains responsible for joint governance meetings and will report progress to the steering group.

The service provider remains responsible for the allocation of personnel as set out in the relevant schedule.

Each party shall cooperate in good faith regarding the integration of systems subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The Customer remains responsible for joint governance meetings as set out in the relevant schedule.

The parties shall review the schedule of services as set out in the relevant schedule.

The Supplier acknowledges the importance of the allocation of personnel and will report progress to the steering group.

SECTION 2

The Customer shall review quality procedures and will report progress to the steering group.

The service provider acknowledges the importance of quality procedures as set out in the relevant schedule.

The Supplier remains responsible for training materials subject to the other terms of this agreement.

This agreement is governed by the laws of Ontario.

The legacy support plan promised a response within 24 hours.

Each party acknowledges the importance of quality procedures in accordance with ordinary business practice.

The parties acknowledges the importance of reporting formats as set out in the relevant schedule.

Each party will maintain records concerning the schedule of services subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The service provider will maintain records concerning reporting formats subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The supplier's total liability under this agreement shall not exceed $100,000.

The Customer acknowledges the importance of environmental standards and will report progress to the steering group.

Each party shall review change requests as set out in the relevant schedule.

The parties shall cooperate in good faith regarding environmental standards as set out in the relevant schedule.

The parties agrees to coordinate on joint governance meetings subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The service provider acknowledges the importance of the allocation of personnel in accordance with ordinary business practice.

SECTION 3

Each party agrees to coordinate on the escalation path as set out in the relevant schedule.

The parties will maintain records concerning environmental standards subject to the other terms of this agreement.

Either party may terminate this agreement by giving 90 days written notice.

The service provider agrees to coordinate on the allocation of personnel and will report progress to the steering group.

Each party shall review reporting formats as set out in the relevant schedule.

The earlier template named New York as the governing law.

The Supplier acknowledges the importance of the allocation of personnel as set out in the relevant schedule.

The parties will maintain records concerning shared tooling in accordance with ordinary business practice.

The parties will maintain records concerning the integration of systems in accordance with ordinary business practice.

Each party acknowledges the importance of change requests as set out in the relevant schedule.

The Supplier shall review shared tooling subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The service provider will maintain records concerning project documentation in accordance with ordinary business practice.

The Customer shall cooperate in good faith regarding joint governance meetings subject to the other terms of this agreement.

Each party agrees to coordinate on the schedule of services and will report progress to the steering group.

SECTION 4

The parties will maintain records concerning training materials subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The parties remains responsible for joint governance meetings in accordance with ordinary business practice.

The abandoned proposal used a penalty of 1% per day.

Each party remains responsible for the escalation path as set out in the relevant schedule.

Each party remains responsible for the allocation of personnel subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The Customer remains responsible for training materials as set out in the relevant schedule.

The parties shall review environmental standards and will report progress to the steering group.

Each party shall review project documentation as set out in the relevant schedule.

The parties shall review quality procedures and will report progress to the steering group.

The Supplier agrees to coordinate on project documentation and will report progress to the steering group.

Each party agrees to coordinate on the integration of systems and will report progress to the steering group.

The Customer agrees to coordinate on the escalation path and will report progress to the steering group.

Each party will maintain records concerning project documentation subject to the other terms of this agreement.

SECTION 5

The Supplier agrees to coordinate on training materials and will report progress to the steering group.

The parties remains responsible for the allocation of personnel as set out in the relevant schedule.

Each party acknowledges the importance of change requests in accordance with ordinary business practice.

The Customer remains responsible for the allocation of personnel subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The Customer shall cooperate in good faith regarding the escalation path subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The customer shall pay each invoice within 45 days of the invoice date.

Each party shall review change requests in accordance with ordinary business practice.

The Customer shall cooperate in good faith regarding the escalation path subject to the other terms of this agreement.

Each party shall cooperate in good faith regarding the schedule of services in accordance with ordinary business practice.

The Supplier shall cooperate in good faith regarding change requests as set out in the relevant schedule.

Each party will maintain records concerning reporting formats as set out in the relevant schedule.

The Supplier acknowledges the importance of the schedule of services and will report progress to the steering group.

Each party remains responsible for change requests and will report progress to the steering group.

SECTION 6

The parties will maintain records concerning joint governance meetings as set out in the relevant schedule.

Under the previous agreement, which is no longer in force, invoices were payable within 14 days.

The service provider remains responsible for the integration of systems subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The Customer agrees to coordinate on environmental standards subject to the other terms of this agreement.

Each party acknowledges the importance of training materials as set out in the relevant schedule.

The old audit clause required 5 days notice.

Each party shall review reporting formats and will report progress to the steering group.

The service provider shall review the allocation of personnel as set out in the relevant schedule.

Support must respond to a critical request within 4 hours.

The parties acknowledges the importance of environmental standards subject to the other terms of this agreement.

The parties will maintain records concerning training materials in accordance with ordinary business practice.

The Customer will maintain records concerning the schedule of services as set out in the relevant schedule.

The Supplier agrees to coordinate on the integration of systems and will report progress to the steering group.

Each party agrees to coordinate on training materials as set out in the relevant schedule.

The parties acknowledges the importance of joint governance meetings subject to the other terms of this agreement.